

Cs419_Group12_code.ipynb-> It contains all the codes related to the project.

To find the movie recommended to a particular id, store that userID in variable named id and then run all the cells and the result will come out of that cell that contains the variable named id for a user to user based approach.

To find the movie recommended to a particular id, store that userID in a variable named id2 and then run all the cells and the result will come out of that cell that contains the variable named id2 for an item to item based approach.